 - Potentially providing surplus City vehicles to VIPS rather than selling at auction

Capital Projects Discussion:

- Legislative action allowing reserve fund balance to increase from 25% to 35%
- Projects in the fund rolling over from the previous year
- Paving Wasatch Wing and Clay Road
 - County contribution estimated at $612,000
 - City funding estimated at $250,000
 - Approximately $150,000 in land donation
 - An interlocal agreement for the project is being drafted
- Truck and equipment storage building
 - Concern with change orders and current construction costs
 - The addition to the Senior parking lot and community development building
 - Garage project funding on an upcoming agenda for approval
 - The project is under budget including the cost of the area under the structure and drainage
- Evaluating the budget to determine if there are ways to reduce the costs

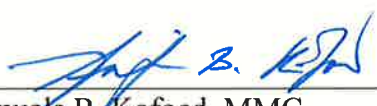

Possible 2022 Projects

- Determining the amount to increase the reserve budget
 - A dramatic increase of the reserve would likely result in bonding for necessary projects

- A dramatic increase of the reserve would likely result in bonding for necessary projects
- Interest rates and inflation considerations for bonding
- A reserve budget increase to 27.5% rather than the full 35% would allocate an additional $3,000,000 for other projects
- Land acquisition for the sewer treatment plant expansion
- Mid Valley Road installation from Pony Express to the new development
- Land acquisition considerations for the public safety building
- Clarifying project priority rankings
- Well One upsizing and relocation
- Potential booster or water sources north of Wride Memorial Highway and near Wasatch Wing and Clay
- Investing City funds in land rather than currency
- City Center Streetscapes was excluded from the prioritization list and is from a separate fund
- Negotiations with Saratoga Springs to allow a traffic light at Woodhaven Boulevard and Pony Express Parkway
 - Impact of Mountain View Corridor funding on facilitating discussions
 - Possible future partnerships and requirements with the Utah Department of Transportation (UDOT) regarding Pony Express Parkway
 - UDOT traffic light spacing requirements
 - The likely increase of the average daily trip count on Woodhaven Boulevard from 5,000 to 7,000 once the SilverLake subdivision is fully built out
